8	Letter no AS CPR 238-D 27-3-29 from the Kolar States that the Sidlaghatta Mal cl^s had been in arrears from 1922 in respect of their contribution for Education, that the Mal cl want the arrears to be waived but that the Mal cl has been asked to pay up the dues from 1926-7 to 1928-9 & recommending that the arrears for 4 years from 1922-6 to 1925-6 may be waived as the Mal cl would be hard hit.
	Similar proposals in the cases of Malur & Bowringpet Mal cl^s have been disallowed & the Mal cl^s have been asked to pay up the arrears at once. In the present case the amount of arrears has not been specified, & also the amount the Mal cl has been asked to pay since 1926-7. The financial condition of the Mal cl is not considered unsatisfactory as may be seen from the Budget Estimates for the current year, & if
